

Ian Denham

Ian Denham is a barrister at Outer Temple Chambers in London.

He specialises in personal injury claims with a cross-border element, claims with features of fraud, dishonesty and exaggeration and wrongful death claims.

His cross-border practice covers advising on jurisdiction, applicable law, direct rights of action against insurers, claims against the MIB, holiday claims including claims under the Package Travel Regulations covering local standards, accidents in the air and on sea, and claims involving a cross-border employment aspect.

He regularly advises European insurers on cross-border issues. He also acts for tour operators in defending suspected fraudulent holiday claims.

Ian lectures extensively on cross-border personal injury law topics both domestically and abroad, such as at PEOPIIL Conferences in Greece, Italy, Malta, the Netherlands and Spain and APIL Travel Law Conferences. He is the Secretary of the PEOPIIL RTA & Whiplash EEG.

Over the past year Ian has edited the Outer Temple Travel Law newsletter and launched the #TravelTalks series of Vlogs.

Ian is a contributor to the 'APIL Guide to Accidents Abroad' (Crowther QC, 2018)
