

Thomas RICARD

Partner, JP KARSENTY & Associés, Paris

thomas.ricard@jpkarsenty.com

Thomas is a partner at J.P. KARSENTY & ASSOCIÉS. His practice focuses on litigation, including personal injury litigation, insurance and commercial fraud.

Prior to joining J.P. KARSENTY & ASSOCIÉS, he worked for LINKLATERS LLP in Paris and in London, where he trained and qualified as a Solicitor (England & Wales).

He is an Ancien Secrétaire de la Conférence of the Paris Bar.

He graduated from the IEP de Paris (Sciences-Po), the Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, and obtained his LLM at UCL in 2006. He holds a master in musicology, published a book on Dylan in 2005 and while a student at UCL was awarded the Joseph Hume award.

He lectured at the Paris Bar School on insurance and litigation. He was the President of the AIJA Commercial Fraud commission (2018-2019). He is a member of Peopil.

Since joining J.P. KARSENTY & ASSOCIÉS he has advised on over 200 personal injury cases.

Work:

- Partner, J.P. Karsenty & Associés (2017-present)
- Of Counsel, J.P. Karsenty & Associés (2013 – 2016)
- Ancien Secrétaire of the Conference of the Paris Bar (2012)
- Associate, Linklaters (2011-2013)
- Trainee Solicitor, Linklaters, London (March 2009 – March 2011)

Main cases since joining J.P. Karsenty & Associés

- Assisting a listed pharma company in a insurance claim
- Assisting a listed data management company in an insurance claim
- Assisting a pharmaceutical company in a fraud investigation
- Assisting individuals in personal injury claims in France
- Assisting insurance companies in personal injury claims in France

Education:

- 2006-2008: GDL (City of London) and LPC (College of Law)
- 2005-2006 : LLM, University College London (UCL), London (UK)
- 2004-2005 : Master in musicology, EHESS, Paris (France)
- 2002-2004: IEP de Paris (Sciences-Po)
- 1998-2002: Master in Law, Université Paris II, Paris (France)
- 2001 : Diploma in Common Law, University College Dublin, Dublin (Ireland)