

Ulla Norrhäll is Claims Manager at Munich Re, handling complex, high-exposure, global insurance and reinsurance aviation related claims such as hull and liability for airlines and general aviation, manufacturers, airport operators and various other aviation related operations.

She gained her skills from similar job positions at companies such as Skandia International, Inter Hannover/Hannover Re and Trygg Hansa/RSA. In addition, experience in the field of compliance, corporate law, underwriting, wording and leadership.

Ulla serves on the Executive Committee of the International Union of Aerospace Insurers (IUAI).

Outside the office, Ulla is committed to education mainly because of her curiosity, she wants to understand why things are the way they are.

Ulla holds an LLM from Uppsala university in Sweden. She has also during the last years taken various courses covering subjects such as psychology, criminology, rhetoric and various leadership trainings.