

Isabelle CHIESA

Deputy Ethics Officer – Groupe Aéroports de Paris

After a law degree in Paris, Isabelle integrates Aéroports de Paris in 2000 as a lawyer in Retail Department.

Then she oversaw regulation monitoring and impact studies in Security Division for 8 years.

In 2012 she enlarges her perimeter, integrating the Legal and Insurance Division where she dealt with all regulatory topics regarding airport management (safety, security, ground handling, health, economic regulation...).

Since 2019 she is Deputy Ethics Officer of the Group, supervising the deployment of ethics and compliance program including the anti-corruption program imposed by French Sapin II law.