

Sébastien Saillard

Sébastien has 30 years of claims experience, and over 27 years' experience as Head of Aviation Claims.

Since 2013, he is also Regional Head of Claims for the Mediterranean and Africa Region (France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and South Africa) for all Lines of Business.

Sébastien holds a post graduate degree from Paris law school, an LLM in Air & Space Law from McGill University in Montreal, and a Management and Business degree from Essec in Paris, as well as a private pilot license.

He started his career with Clifford Chance law firm in Paris before joining AGCS predecessors in 1993 (Assurance France Aviation, and Allianz Marine & Aviation). He has since handled complex international aviation claims as lead insurer of a major European aircraft manufacturer and has been Head of the aviation claims team since 1996.