Sigrid PREISSEL

Attorney admitted to the Bar of Paris (France) since 2005, founder and partner of Bourayne & Preissl since 2016. Lecturer at the University of Lille (France) in transport insurance law.

Thanks to her French and Austrian/German dual culture, trained in London, Paris and Innsbruck, she frequently oversees cases involving international matters and cross-border litigation (transport/logistics, aviation, product liability). Sigrid is an active member and speaker within maritime law, lawyers and international transportation law organisations in Austria, Germany and France.

Ranked by "Decideurs", amongst the top 20 law firms in France in transportation & logistics as well as in Aviation, BOURAYNE & PREISSEL represent SMEs, publicly traded companies, major insurers, which trust them already for decades, all from sectors as varied as textile (French luxury, high-end prêt-à-porter), agribusiness and the logistics sectors (freight forwarders, carriers, shippers).

In aviation, she handles aviation accidents representing victims and their families, regularly also in support of US based or Canadian law firms, as well as cargo claims.

On a more personal note, Sigrid is a proud mother of three boys among which twins which are raised bilingual French-German.
