

Alice Kubu Frybova

Alice is an attorney at Holubova advokati s.r.o., a law firm providing legal services in the Czech Republic since 1991, and well known for its expertise in travel business law, personal injury, private clients, multi-generation planning in the Czech Republic, and education law. The office of Holubova advokati also operates as the Consulate of Iceland in the Czech Republic.

Alice is an experienced lawyer specializing in travel and education law. In the field of travel law, Alice's clients include tour operators, intermediaries, municipalities, and NGOs. Alice has advised one of the biggest flight-ticket intermediaries on how to develop and adjust their business model from the perspective of travel, consumer, and transportation law.

In her practice of education law, Alice works closely with schools, teachers, and also associations in the education sector. She has advised political representatives on the legalities of education policy proposals. During the Covid pandemic, Alice successfully represented a school that was being sued by its pupils whose parents objected to the mandatory wearing of face masks. The consequent judgement in the case clarified the position of minors and their representation before the Czech administrative courts.

In the last two years, Alice has been representing teachers who have suffered damages as a result of Covid-19 being an occupational disease. One major case regarding a deceased kindergarten teacher has been successfully concluded, while other cases are still pending.
