

Sara-Jane Eaton

Partner, DWF Law LLP

Sara-Jane is an insurance lawyer specialising in international claims at DWF Law LLP's London office . She speaks French and German and handles cross-border litigation arising from motor, products, travel, employers' and public liability claims, as well as catastrophic injury and large loss claims pre- and post-Brexit, whether under the Brussels Recast Regulation and the Rome II Regulation or otherwise. Sara-Jane regularly represents French and German insurers and individuals in the UK and abroad, acting both for Claimants and Defendants alike. She is the Green Card correspondent for several overseas insurers where she generally represents insurers, often defending claims arising in mainland Europe and in the UK. Sara-Jane is a member of the Forum of Insurance Lawyers (FOIL) and is DWF's principal contact with ABTA.

Sara-Jane is recognised in the travel section of Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 and is noted for having “a good eye for the winning points in a case”.
