Consultant Intensive Care Physician and Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer

I have over 30 years' experience as a doctor. I trained in general internal medicine, microbiology/virology and anaesthesia before switching to intensive care medicine. In 2002 I was appointed as consultant intensive physician, at the Royal Berkshire Hospital. I moved to University Hospital Southampton in December 2020.

My practice is in General and Neuro Intensive Care Medicine.

I have academic roles at the University of Southampton, Kings College London and the University of Reading. My research interests are in complex decision making related to serious medical treatment. I have been awarded an Honorary Fellowship of the Faculty of Forensic and Legal Medicine for services to the science and practice of Forensic and Legal Medicine.

I have been Honorary Secretary of the Intensive Care Society, founded and Chaired the Legal and Ethical Policy Unit of the Faculty of Intensive Care Medicine and been a member of national guideline development groups in a number of key areas, including Prolonged Disorders of Consciousness. I am a Fellow of the Academy of Experts and a member of the Court of Protection Practitioners Association.
