

Laura Brown
Brown Trial Firm, PLLC

Laura is a third-generation trial attorney – both her father and grandfather were trial attorneys, and she grew up watching both of them take cases to trial. She is the owner of Brown Trial Firm, PLLC, a law firm that specializes in birth injury and medical negligence cases. She also serves as an adjunct professor at Baylor Law School teaching trial advocacy skills in Advanced Trial Preparation.

She is a member of the American Association for Justice, the Birth Trauma Litigation Group (BTLG) having served as co-chair and co-editor of the BTLG Newsletter. She is also a member of the Medical Negligence Group.

Laura is board certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in Personal Injury Trial Law. She is also recognized as a Texas Super Lawyer and is Chapter President of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) for the Waco chapter. She is licensed to practice in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas and has represented clients in birth injury cases in many states nationwide.

Laura is a member of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, having obtained multiple multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements for her clients.

She is co-author of Proving Damages to the Jury. Jim Wren & Laura Brown, Proving Damages to the Jury (4th ed. 2022).

Laura graduated from Baylor University in 1989 with a degree in biology and from Baylor Law in 1992.

Laura's husband is a commercial airline pilot. Her daughter is attending Baylor Law School, and her son is in flight training.
